

Print on to card then decorate both sides of your snake, making sure you can still read the words! Then cut it out and hang it somewhere in your house to remind you that Jesus has made a way for us to be friends with God again.

